

Grace for President Reading Project Social Media Kit

Sample tweets:

- ★ Of 20 first graders at Franklin Elementary School, 15 want to be president!
#Grace4pres #teachagirl
- ★ First graders at Franklin Elementary School are learning about running for president.
#Grace4pres #teachagirl
- ★ Franklin Elementary School 1st graders learning why WY is known as the Equality State. #Grace4pres #teachagirl
- ★ Today I shared my story of how I became a legislator with the first graders of Franklin Elementary School. #Grace4pres #teachagirl

Tweet a quote from a child using their grade/age and first name:

(In addition to #Grace4pres #teachagirl, try hashtags like #thingskidssay for a wider audience.)

- ★ What she would promise if she were to run for president (e.g. Susie, age 7, would work for world peace if she was US president #Grace4pres #teachagirl)
- ★ The most important part of being president
- ★ What she would do if she were running for class president
- ★ Why boys should vote for girls

Some photographs you can tweet/share on Facebook, Instagram, etc.:

*Please note that there are strict restrictions on the use of identifiable photos of children.

- ★ A photograph of the signed sticker on the inside cover
- ★ A photograph of you reading Grace for President to the children, perhaps showing only backs of children's heads
- ★ A photograph of you holding the book in front of the school or classroom you are visiting
- ★ A photograph of you donating the book to the school librarian or class teacher