

SOCIAL MEDIA KIT

Thanks for participating in the Teach a Girl to Lead™ If I Were President Reading Project! Here are some sample posts you can use to share your experience with your constituents and the media. Don't forget to tag us using @TeachAGirl and #teachagirl! Try adding other hashtags like #womenshistory and #thingskidssay for a wider audience.

Sample Facebook Posts:

- The first graders at Franklin Elementary School hosted me today, and we read a book called "If I Were President" thanks to the @TeachAGirl project. Lots of great ideas in that room. I'm optimistic about the future! #teachagirl
- Today I shared the story of how I became a legislator with the first graders of Franklin Elementary. They already knew a lot about the vital role of women in our democracy. Proud to be part of the @TeachAGirl project. #teachagirl
- Thanks to Franklin Elementary and @TeachAGirl for inviting me to share my role as a woman public leader and talk to kids about their role in democracy. #teachagirl

Sample Tweets:

- Today I shared the story of how I became a legislator with the first graders of Franklin Elementary #teachagirl
- Susie, age 7, would work for world peace if she was #POTUS #teachagirl
- Thanks to Franklin Elementary and @TeachAGirl for inviting me to share my role as a woman public leader #teachagirl

Don't forget to share photos and video! Things like:

- The signed Teach a Girl to Lead™ sticker on the inside cover
- You reading to the class, perhaps showing the backs of children's heads
- You holding the book in front of the school or classroom you are visiting
- You donating the book to the school librarian or class teacher

Please note: there are strong restrictions on the use of identifiable photos of children.
